THE PREFACE.

CATHEDRAL Muſic conſiſts of chaunts, ſervices, and anthems, full and verſe; full when ſung in four parts, called treble, contratenor, tenor and baſs, to the loud organ, or in five, ſix, and eight parts; verſe when ſung by one, two, or three voices to the ſoft or chair organ.

The chaunt, though a monotony, is capable of all the graces of accent, emphaſis and pauſe; it is alſo more audible and more ſtriking, and upon the whole, produces a greater effect than can the beſt cadences of ſpeaking.

No

No nation can boaſt of more and better ſacred muſic than our own; ſo under proper encouragement and ſtudy no nation might boaſt of better voices and more excellent performers, to the increaſe of their own delight and devotion, as well as that of others who hear them, and to the honour of thoſe who appoint them.

Thus every cathedral might become a glorious church, wherein all the members rejoice, animated with one ſpirit; the Spirit of GOD, of love and ſacred harmony.

CLARKE.

PSALM XVIII.

Tenor, Baſs.

1. I Will love thee, O Lord, my ſtrength: the Lord is my ſtony rock, and my defence; my Saviour, my God, and my might, in whom I will truſt; my buckler, the horn alſo of my ſalvation, and my refuge.

Ten. Solo. 2. I will call upon the Lord, which is worthy to be praiſed: ſo ſhall I be ſafe from mine enemies.

3. The

3. The ſorrows of death compaſſed me: and the overflowings of ungodlineſs made me afraid. Baſs.

4. The pains of hell came about me: the ſnares of death overtook me.

5. In my trouble I will call upon the LORD: and complain unto my GOD.

6. So ſhall he hear my voice out of his holy temple: and my complaint ſhall come before him; it ſhall enter even into his ears. 2 Voices.

7. The earth trembled and quaked: the very foundations of the hills ſhook, and were removed, becauſe he was wroth. Chorus.

13. The LORD alſo thundered out of heaven, and the higheſt gave his thunder: hail-ſtones and coal of fire. 2 Voices.

16. He ſhall ſend down from on high to fetch me: and ſhall take me out of many waters. 2 Voices. and Chorus.

21. Becauſe I have kept the ways of the LORD: and have not forſaken my GOD.

PSALM. CIII.

Con. Ten. Baſs.

8. THE LORD is full of compaſſion and mercy: long ſuffering, and of great goodneſs.

9. He will not alway be chiding: neither keepeth he his anger for ever.

10. He hath not dealt with us after our ſins: nor rewarded us according to our wickedneſſes.

Baſs. 11. For look how high the heav'n is in compariſon of the earth: ſo great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

12. Look how wide alſo the Eaſt is from the Weſt: ſo far hath he ſet our ſins from us.

3 Voices. 13. Yea, like as a father pitieth his own children: ev'n ſo is the LORD merciful unto them that fear him.

14. For he knoweth whereof we are made: he remembreth that we are but duſt.

15. The days of man are but as graſs: for he flouriſheth as a flower of the field.

16. For as ſoon as the wind goeth over it, it is gone: and the place thereof ſhall know it no more.

Verſe and Chorus. 17. But the merciful goodneſs of the LORD endureth for ever and ever upon them that fear him: and his righteouſneſs upon children's children;

18. Ev'n upon ſuch as keep his covenant: and think upon his commandments to do them.

2. Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.
3. For I will consider thy heavens even the works of thy fingers, the Moon and the Stars which thou hast ordained
4. What is man, that thou art mind-ful of him, and the son of man that thou visitest him?
5. Thou madest him lower than the Angels to crown him with glory and worship

6. Thou makest him to have dominion of the works of thy hands, and thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. — Hallelujah Cho.
Kent.
